

THE TRIPLE BURDEN OF DISEASES SYMPOSIUM

Emerging Challenges of Triple burden of Diseases and their Prospects in Developing Countries

SPEAKERS

Prof. Dr. Ana Olga Mocumbi (Mozambique)
Neglected chronic diseases in Africa: Challenging the status quo

Prof. Dr. Berthold Koletzko (Germany)
Early nutrition programming: implications for later life

Dr. Duc Van Le (Vietnam)
Prevalence of diabetes mellitus among tuberculosis patients in Danang City, Vietnam

Dr. Wolfgang Krahl (Germany)
Substance abuse and mental health in Africa and Asia

Dr. Olive Kobusingye (Uganda)
Move at your own risk! Why are so many dying on our roads?

Dr. Quang Van Ngo (Vietnam)
Implementing programs to reduce the burden of cervical cancer in Vietnam: HPV vaccine and early screening using VIA

Panel Discussion 1: Triple burden of diseases: Implications for health systems
Moderated by: Dr. Günter Fröschl (Germany)

Panel Discussion 2: Impact of the triple burden of diseases for developing countries
Moderated by: Prof. Dr. Marc Suhrcke (UK)

WHEN

Saturday, March 18, 2017
Time: 9am-5pm

WHERE

University Hospital of Munich,
Department of Anatomy
Auditorium A202
Pettenkoferstraße 11,
Munich, Germany

LANGUAGE

English

Full program: Please visit www.cih.lmu.de

REGISTRATION

Please register before March 11, 2017 by sending an email to:
symposium.infections@lrz.uni-muenchen.de

Registration Fee:

General audience: Euro 30
Students: Euro 10

BENEFIT

