

The Teaching & Training Unit at the Division of Infectious Diseases and Tropical Medicine is looking for a Student Assistant (m/f/d)

Photos from our public health course in Nepal

Our offer:

We offer you a varied position in an intercultural environment. Become part of a motivated team in which we attach great importance to the working atmosphere.

As part of the job, you will come into contact with our international training programmes, speakers and participants from all over the world. More information about us:

www.cih.lmu.de

Target start date: immediately

Employment is in accordance with the remuneration for student auxiliary staff at the University Hospital of Munich.

Your area of responsibility:

Preparation, administration and analysis of alumni and candidate surveys. Supervision and administration of international participants and speakers as part of our training programmes. Working in the coordination office of the Teaching & Training Unit. Working on our scholarship programmes and in the financial administration of the unit. Preparation of our international academic events.

Our requirements:

- Affinity to the topics of International Health/ Global Health
- Fluency in English
- Sound IT skills (MS Office, especially Word, Excel, PowerPoint)
- Organisational talent
- Flexibility
- Student status at least until summer semester 2025
- Average weekly availability 5-10 hours

Enquiries and applications on an ongoing basis to PD Dr Günter Fröschl: tfu@lrz.uni-muenchen.de