

free
INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM

LUDWIG-MAXIMILIANS-
UNIVERSITÄT
MÜNCHEN

INTERGENERATIONAL IMPACT OF DROUGHT AND FAMINE ON HEALTH SYSTEMS IN DEVELOPING COUNTRIES

Join us for a FREE symposium, creating a global dialogue and exploring potential solutions for a better global future !

March 15, 2024
08:30 – 15:15 CET

Hörsaal der Kinderklinik
Lindwurmstraße 4,
80337, Munich

Attend in person or online !

FEATURING EXPERT KEYNOTE SPEAKERS FROM RENOWNED INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS ACROSS THE GLOBE !

Topics including :

- ◆ The One Health approach to understanding the complex relationship between drought, famine, and health systems
- ◆ One Health interventions for resilient health systems
- ◆ Innovative strategies to establish resilient health systems in developing countries

Panel discussions and case studies with experts in the field

Research presentations from CIH^{LMU} PhD and MSc students

Who Should Attend?

Open to researchers, academics, policy makers, healthcare professionals, students, and anyone interested in the interplay between drought, famine, and health systems in developing countries!

Earn 6 CME credits !

Registration Now Open !

www.cih.lmu.de/activities/symposia/symposia-series-global-health
Contact us at cih.symposium2024@lrz.uni-muenche