

EUGLOHRIA SEEDING GRANT

The EUGLOHRIA seeding grant final reporting form

Deadline for submission: November 30th 2023

General information

- Researchers who have received the seeding grant from any of the five EUGLOHRIA alliance universities (University of Paris-Saclay, Lund University, Ludwig-Maximilians-University Munich, University of Porto, University of Szeged) are required to submit a final report.

A final report of the achievements and future perspectives of the project/initiative (maximum of 2 pages) should be submitted to the respective administrative office at the host university (within the EUGLOHRIA alliance) by November 30th, 2023. The coordination of all final reports for seeding grant will be managed by the respective host university.

The email address for EUGLOHRIA office at these universities are as below:

University of Paris Saclay: euglohria.upsaclay@universite-paris-saclay.fr

Lund University: euglohria@med.lu.se

University of Szeged: euglohria@szte.hu

University of Porto: euglohria@up.pt

Ludwig-Maximilian University of Munich: euglohria@lmu.de

- It is important that all applicants follow all the guidelines for the completion of the final reporting form.

1. Information about applicants

Applicants (Full name):

Degree(s):

Institution name (anglicised version):

Institution address (anglicised version):

Telephone:

E-mail:

2. Structure of the final report (maximum of 2 pages)

- The title of the project.
- Short description of the project idea, background, objectives, research methods, and timeline of the project.
- Short description of the achievements, lessons learned, and future perspectives of the project/initiative.
- Reflection on the interinstitutional collaboration within settings such as EUGLOHRIA and suggestions to enhance and better foster international research cooperations.

3. Declaration: The undersigned declare that the information submitted is accurate and complete (to the best of our knowledge).

Principal investigator (applicants) assurance: The undersigned agrees to accept responsibility for the scientific and technical conduct of the research project.

Signatures: (Applicant)